DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-40, are currently pending in the instant application.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper time wise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-40 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claim 1-29 of copending Application No. 10/804,380. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because

Art Unit: 1626

The copending claim 1 discloses the compounds of Formula

The difference between the claims of the copending application and the instant claims is that the copending claims encompass the instantly claimed invention. For example in claim 1 of the copending application recites in page 4, lines 21 and 22 “ if m is 2 n is not 2 and if n is 2 m is not 2”. This proviso is absent in the present application, however, the proviso that m and n taken together are 3 or 4 is present in both applications.

However, although the copending claims only encompass the instantly claimed invention the specification provides preferences towards the compounds as instantly claimed. Examples 9-12, on pages 33-36 of the copending Application teach compounds encompassed by the instant claims. Therefore, the claimed compounds would have been suggested to one skilled in the art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
